May / June 2013

The Pastor's Two Cents:

As you heard me talk about and seen previous newsletter articles about my concern regarding our growth. Meeting our budget is dependent upon the fundraising account and not our weekly offerings. Our fundraising events have fewer and fewer participants. Our Thursday night services are now under 10 attendees weekly and Sunday isn't much better. We were averaging 50-60 people weekly last year and now we are "BACK" down to about 35-40 which is where it was when I first came.

Obviously the honeymoon is over. In the last 5 years we have made significant changes inside and outside the church but more importantly I have heard it from a number of people that the spirituality of our the congregation is the one thing that stands out the most. The people have changed at Trinity UCC in Coplay. And that is fantastic but it is not enough!

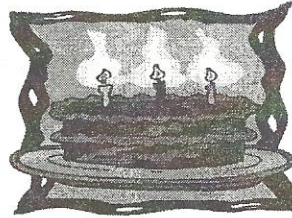

We now have to take that change and put it into action. We need to have a real goal and purpose to work toward. We need to know what our mission is inside and outside the church. We need to see a renewed energy in worship, in our ministry teams and in our people. And the way we do that is through discipleship. Discipleship is a "churchy" word for putting your effort where your mouth is. It is no longer acceptable to call ourselves Christians if we are not going to act like Christians. We cannot call ourselves disciples of Christ if we are not putting Christ's teachings into action.

These next five years will be a transformative time for Trinity UCC. Our first step in this new endeavor will be to discover what our purpose is in our community. In the process we will look at all aspects of our worship, our fundraising, our tithing and attendance so that we can take our church from striving to thriving. In the process we will meet Christ in worship and we will do Christ's work in the world.

May Trinity UCC in Coplay follow the ways of our Savior and become a true church with true disciples.

Pastor Steve

Trinity member Vanessa Miller is participating in Whitehall Relay for Life June 22 as a member of Team Wolfer's Woo Hoo'ers. She is collecting gently used shoes in the narthex as a team fund-raiser, through Shoebox Recycling. Shoes accepted are paired men's, women's and kid's shoes that are still usable, not wet or mildewed, no holes in soles. Includes dress shoes, athletic shoes, timberland type boots, sandals, heels, flats. Excludes heavy winter boots, skates, blades, flip flops, slippers, crocs, singles, and unusables. Thank you in advance for supporting Vanessa's efforts and the local fight against cancer!

Trinity fabric artists are busily creating rainbow scarves to be shared at the General Synod meeting. In a colorful, symbolic move to take a stand against bullying and violence, the UCC is collecting rainbow-colored scarves, knitted, woven or crocheted by people who want to join in and support the cause. The UCC is looking to collect 3,000 scarves in time for General Synod 2013, beginning June 28th in Long Beach, Calif. Each scarf will be given to an attendee who pledges to take action against bullying and other types of violence. Whether it's writing to their senators, working with school administrators, or addressing violent behavior when they see it, each scarf recipient will do their part to put an end to America's violence and bullying epidemic. Pastor Steve and Dawn are delegates to this meeting representing us and PNEC. A dedication service of these scarves will held Sunday, June 2nd. (The scarves will then be mailed so they reach California by the June 14th deadline) (Scarves should be colorful, vibrant, and full of love and hope, measuring 4 to 6 inches wide and 60 inches long.)

"Remembering Dolores Wolfgang"

Dolores was a friend to everyone. She was interested in the Trinity people and shared their happy and sad moments.

When Dolores was on Consistory at Christmas time she received names from Phoebe residents telling what they would like for Christmas. Dolores saw that every request was answered.

She collected tams and gloves for the Indian children. She collected books for children and sent them at her own expense. She helped to run the First Flea Market on the lawn and planned a Strawberry Festival.

She worked at Community Days for Carol at the Trinity booth for many years and when a friend needed her help, she sewed stoles for (12) disciples and made a robe for Jesus.

This is a small tribute to a big heart.

Esther
